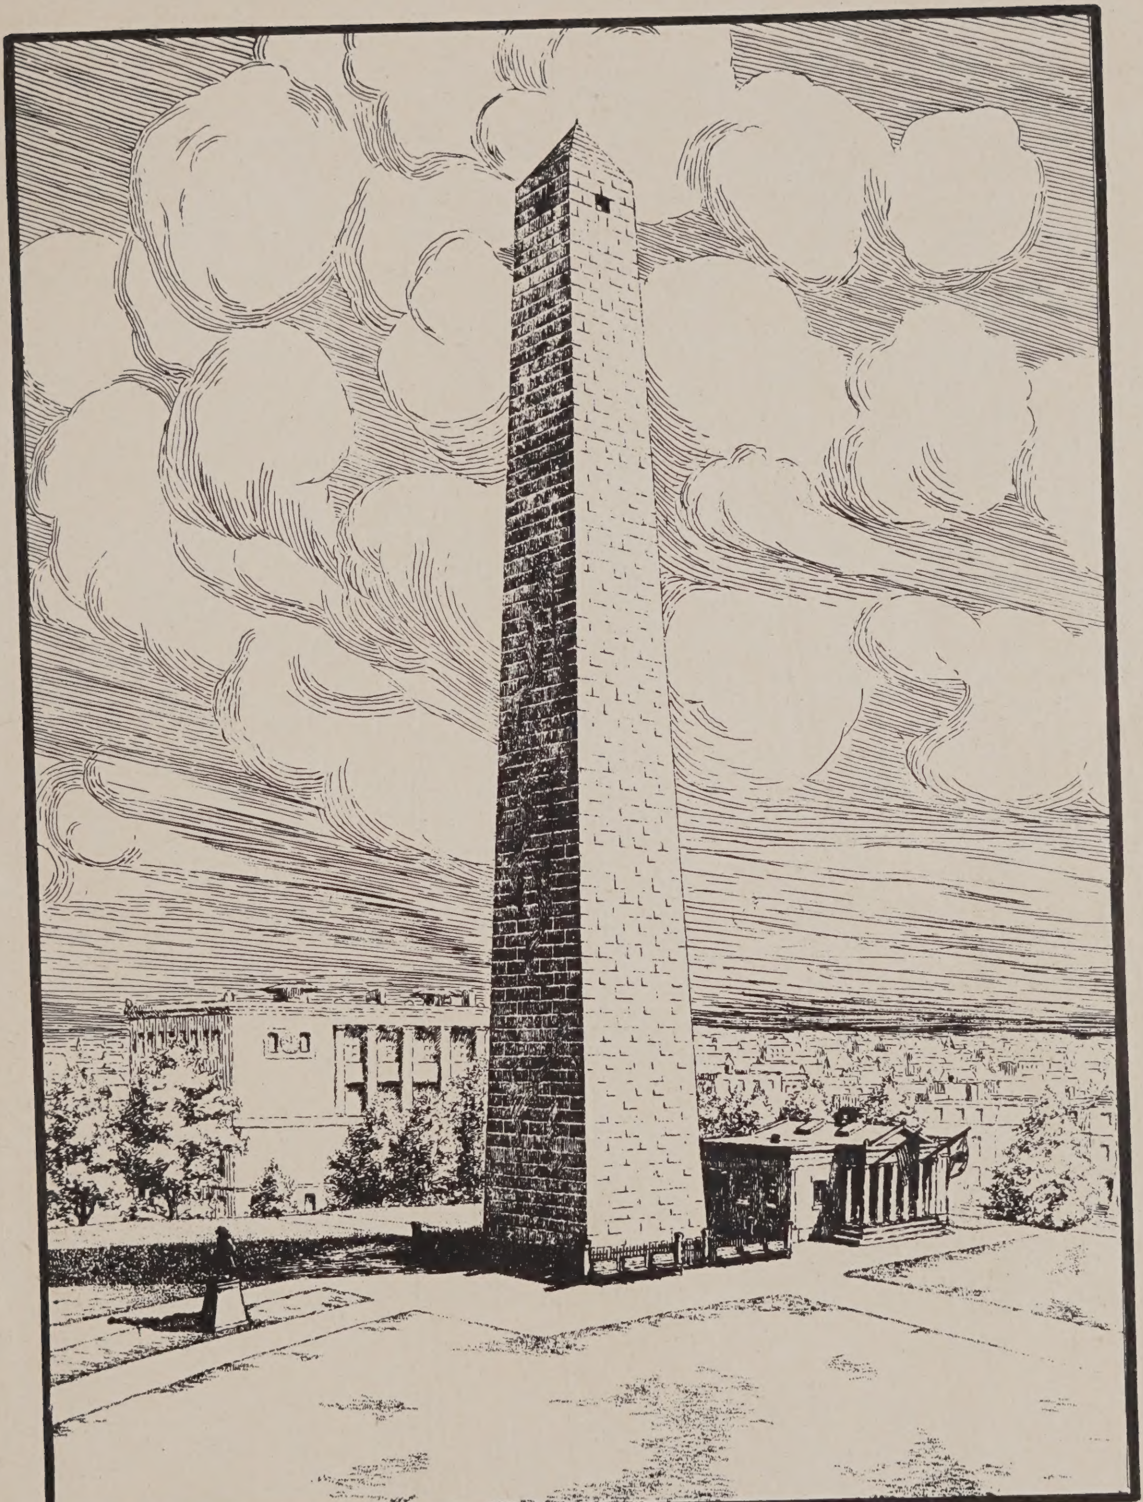
CHARLESTOWN

'44



TO THE CLASS OF 1944:

Graduates of 1944, you are going out into the world at a momentous time. Your country is on the threshold of what promises to be the most significant year of the war. Within the next few months America will concentrate all her material resources, all her man-power, all her spiritual strength for the great offensive in Western Europe and for the final push toward victory in the Pacific.

It is your great privilege to be at this time a vital part of this tremendous striking force. It is your personal responsibility to do all that lies in your utmost power to help your country make the supreme effort that her hour of crisis demands. Some of the boys enrolled in the Class of 1944 are already in the Armed Forces. Many more will follow in the days immediately to come.

However, the Home Front needs its patriots, too--men and women who will help to speed the wheels of production--who will help the total war effort to rise in cumulative strength until it pyramids to the heights where victory is assured.

So, in America at war, each one of you must take his place as either a fighter or a worker. Your years at Charlestown High School have given you the knowledge and the skills to make your aid a definite contribution to your country's sum-total of power and driving force.

You have already shown your wisdom in remaining in school despite the many temptations you have had to leave for high wages and attractive opportunities in the business and industrial world. You have had the acumen to realize that the more highly trained you can become in your specific fields, the more valuable to your country you will be. Certainly such clear thinking at your age proves that you will be able to chart a safe, steady course through the confusion and complexity of present-day and post-war living.

Seniors, it is with great pride and affection that I give you now my fondest blessing as you go out from these school halls. To you, the young people of today, our beloved country entrusts its destiny! Go forward to serve her wherever you are needed--unafraid, undaunted, and unconquerable!

ENSIGN MARY M. HATTON

Charlestown High School is proud of the star upon its faculty Service Flag. When Ensign Hatton joined the colors, she was true to her splendid family traditions of patriotism and service. Her grandfather fought in the Civil War, having the distinction of being one of the first to enlist from Charlestown in the 5th Regiment, Massachusetts Volunteers. Her sister is now in India, a Lieutenant in the U. S. Army Nurses' Corps.

Brilliant in mind, lovely in person, Ensign Mary Hatton will fulfill any assignment given her by the U. S. Navy with distinction and honor.

We feel that, in lending Ensign Hatton to the WAVES for the duration, we here at Charlestown have indeed been true to our country's request to "Give until it hurts!"

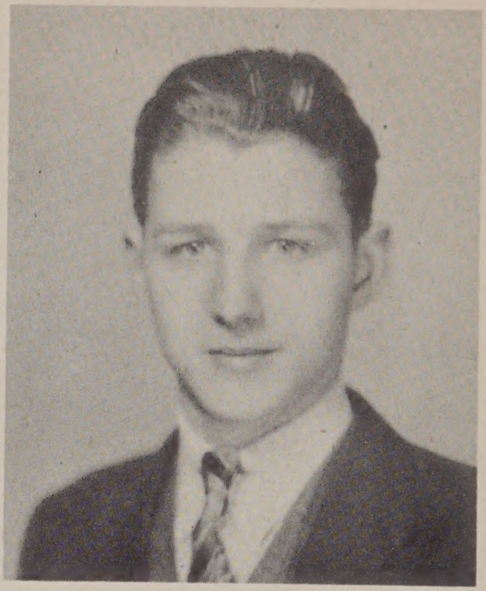
PHYLLIS R. AHERN

As attractive as the cute dimple that's tucked in her cheek, Phyllis is definitely a girl we'd be glad to come home to!

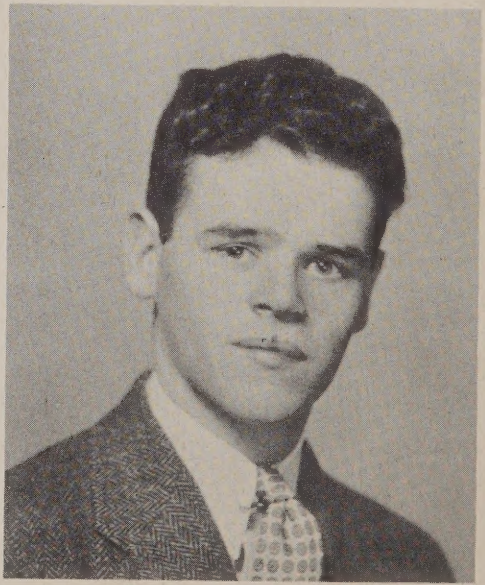


LEONARD S. ALLISON

It's wings for Leonard! C.H.S. gave the Army not only a handsome Cadet but a bright and clever one, too.

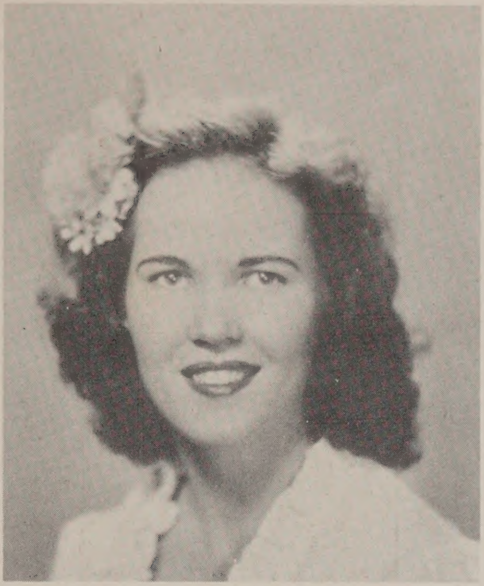
MARGARET M. AMBROSE

Petite, piquant, and pretty as a picture done in soft pastels is this auburn-haired, starry-eyed girl.



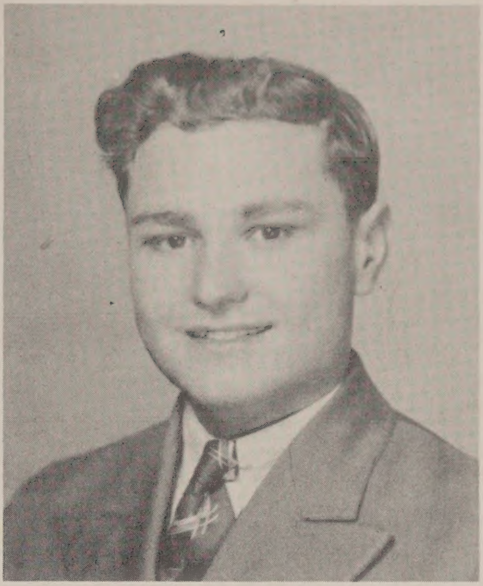
JOSEPH A. BARNES

We all enjoyed the breeze as Joe sailed through his classes. Wasn't it fun, Joe? It was nice knowing you!



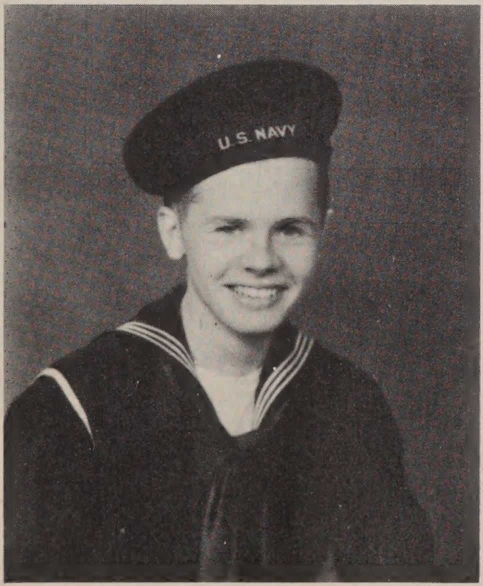
MARY H. BARNES

Gay-hearted Mary brings you a new and altogether lovely feeling of how good life is when lived with zest!



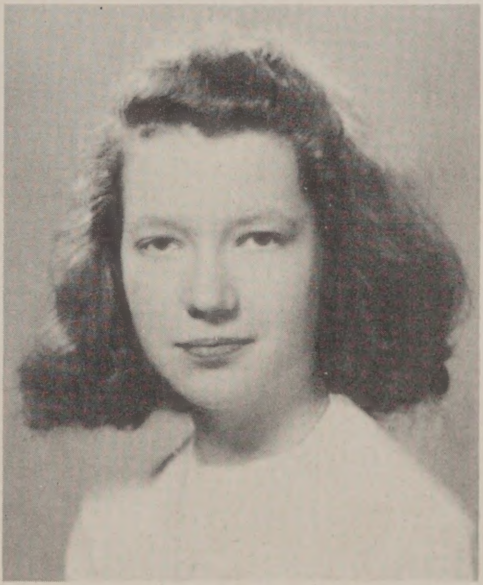
CHARLES L. BASILE

Courteous, kind, and dignified, Charlie is just the boy we shall be sure to look up at alumni dinners.



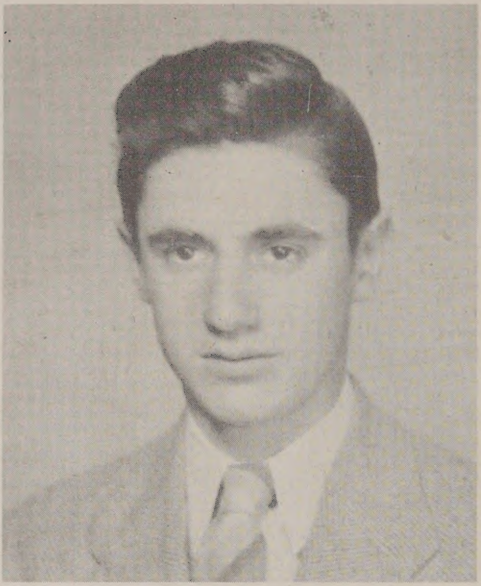
THOMAS A. BLACK

When you pack your sea bag, Sailor, load it up with our best wishes. We miss that gay grin of yours that used to say, "Hi, Chum!"



THERESA E. BRADLEY

'Round the clock, 'round the calendar, Theresa is always her efficient, capable self! The perfect secretary she'll be!

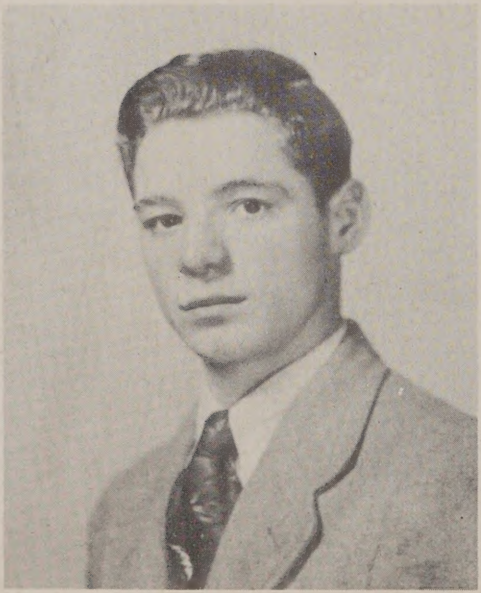


WILLIAM E. BRATTON

Cheerful, generous, and friendly, Bill's affability has won him many friends.

ELIZABETH E. BRODERICK

Happy and gay, Elizabeth is one of the most popular girls in our class. Her vivacity has added a sparkle to our school life.



WALTER J. CARNEY

What a thrilling sense of the joy of living Walter has! Sports, music, friends--how many interests he has to gladden and enrich his life!

JOAN E. CARROLL

We'll let you in on a secret! There's a keen intelligence hidden behind Joan's soft, blond prettiness and demure appeal!

PATRICIA C. CARTER

Pat's sincerity and sterling worth shine through her lovely eyes. How delightful it is to know someone as genuine and real as she is!

JOSEPH F. CARVALHO

Well-mannered and well-liked by all his classmates, Joe pursues his unruffled way through life.

MARY E. CONLEY

Mary has a calm and soothing influence on us all. She's very dear to her classmates.

MARGUERITE M. CONLON

Loving all things gay and bright, Marguerite looks at life with merry, dancing eyes.

JAMES L. CONNOLLY

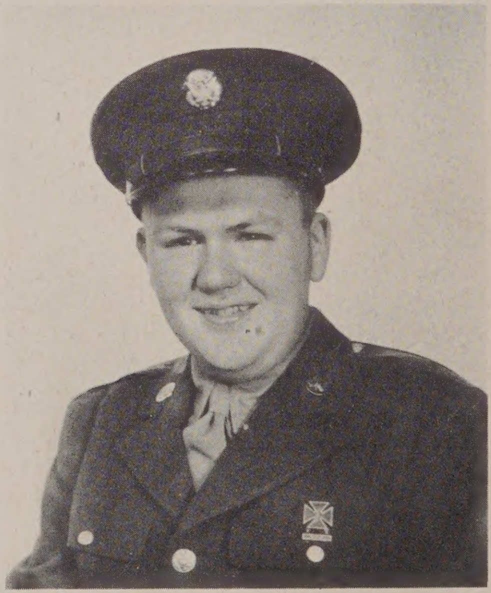
Jim's quiet humor and sincere friendliness has given him a special place in all our hearts.

JOHN J. CONNORS

Courteous, considerate, and handsome, too, John is definitely in the inner circle of our class life.

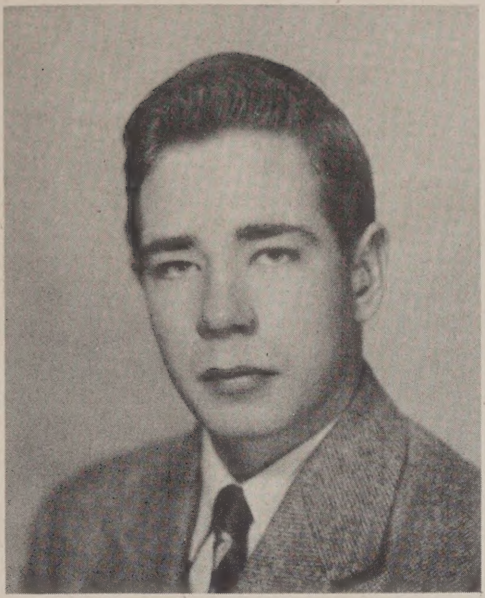
CHARLES F. COREY

If the Marine Corps has any intelligence quizzes, Charlie will answer the sixty-four dollar question. This fighting man has brains - as well as looks.



CHARLES V. CORL

Dependable, direct, and sincere, Charlie won the admiration of us all here at C.H.S. Safe home, soldier of the U.S. Army Signal Corps!

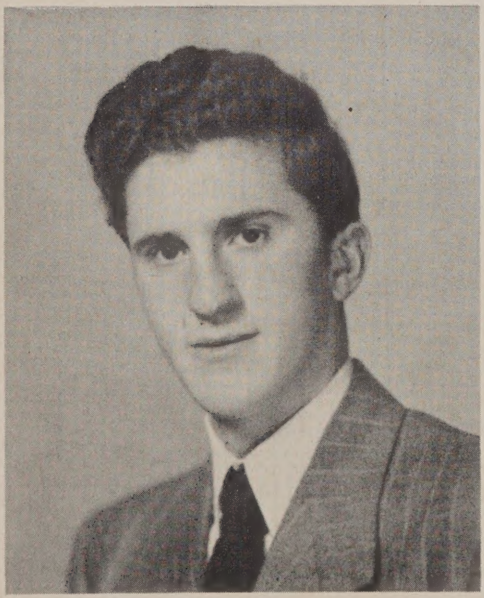


WILLIAM E. CORMAY

Quick-witted, intelligent, good-looking, Bill will find the way of life pleasant traveling with plenty of interesting companions.

MARY L. CRAWFORD

Straight from the pages of "Mademoiselle" could this dainty miss step. What a lovely picture she is!



FELIX J. DE MARCO

What a break for an outfit to have a fine fellow like Felix to lift the morale! His Marine buddies must be glad he picked their Corps!

FRANCIS D. DENEHY

A quick, friendly smile; an easy, cordial comaraderie - by now you have guessed what a mighty fine fellow Red is!

MARY E. DESMOND

Mary is one of those rare people whose very gaiety and brightness ease the tension of life and give one a delightful sense of restfulness.

THERESA E. DEVLIN

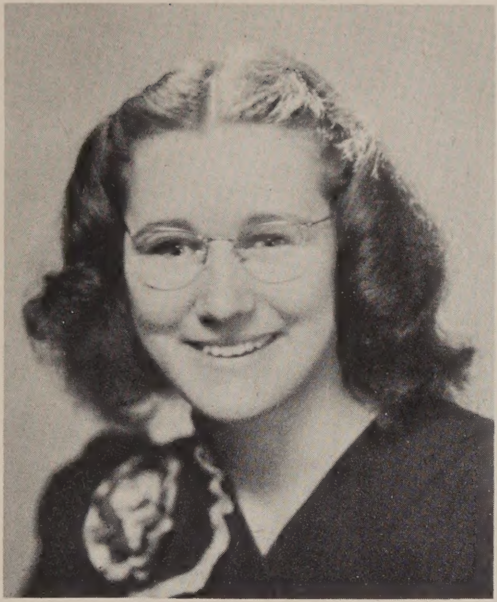
The enthusiasm and sprightliness of this dainty miss has charmed us all.

ADELINE B. DI MASI

Soft-spoken, dignified, and unusually gentle, Addie creates a calmness that is an attraction in itself.

HANNAH M. DOHERTY

Demure and serene, the day is that much pleasanter when Hannah is there.

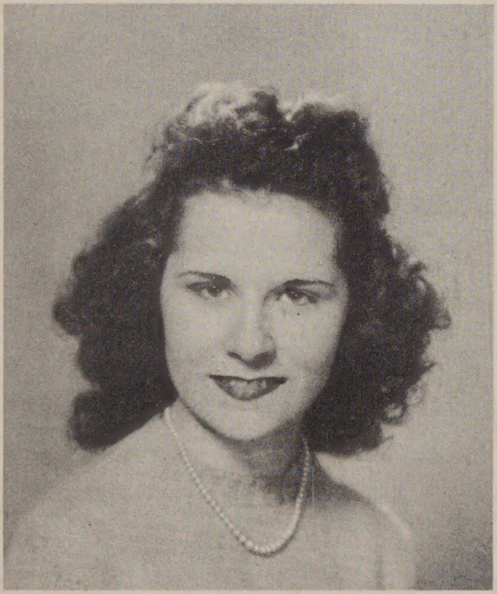


WINIFRED M. DOHERTY

Winnie is so filled with enthusiasm and tireless energy that she will accomplish many things in her life.

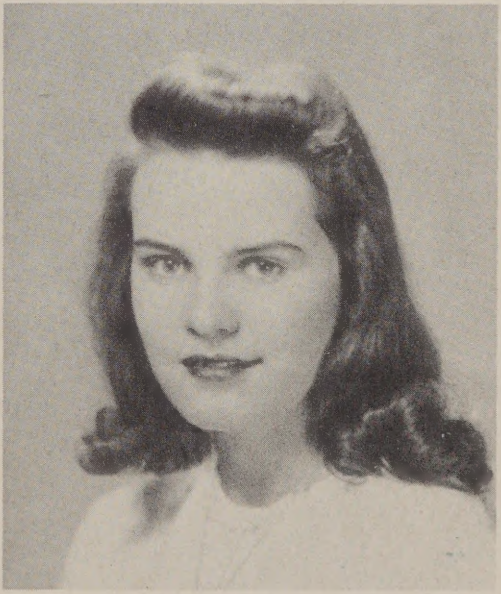
PATRICIA M. DOWD

A dainty miss whose efficiency and capability will make her invaluable to some big business office.



CATHERINE C. FARLEY

How refined and lovely she is! Just stay as sweet as you are, Catherine. Please don't ever change!

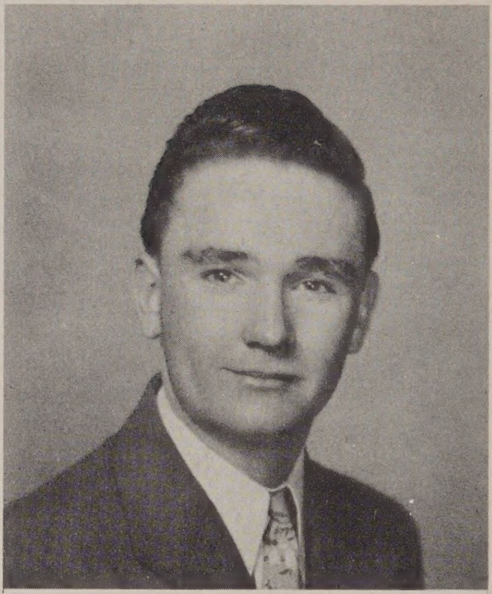


VIOLET M. FARRELL

Life will always be a thrilling, joyous experience to Vi for she has a wonderful capacity for enjoyment.

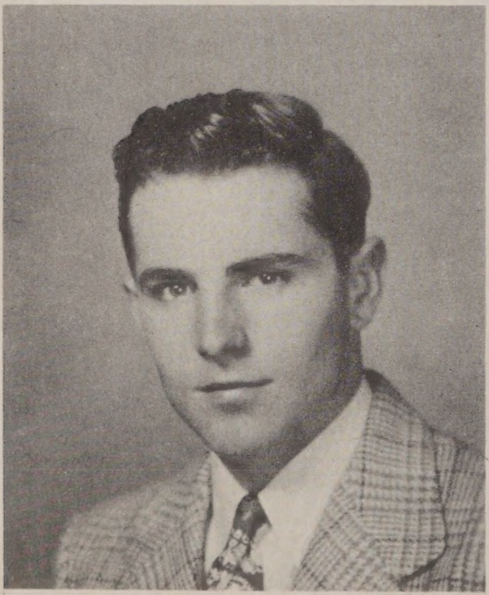
RUTH A. FARREN

Blithe and charming is our Ruthie. She's always bright and fresh as a new May morning.



WILLIAM J. FIDLER

This is the Army, Mr. Fidler. With your athletic ability, Bill, you will be one of the finest G. I. boys Uncle Sam ever called upon.

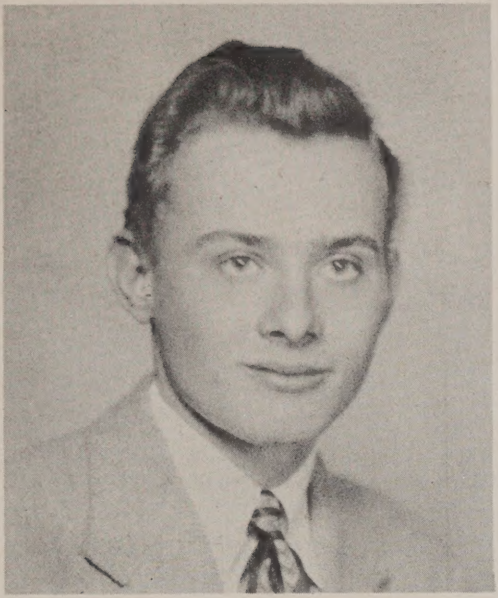


JAMES R. FITZPATRICK

Fitzie's outstanding work in sports is only one of the many reasons for his extraordinary popularity in C. H. S.

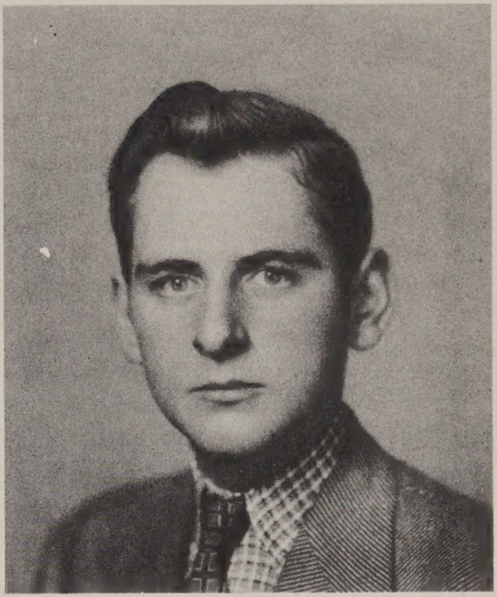
MARY T. FLEMING

Take intelligence and humor, add a dash of initiative, and a liberal pinch of wit, and you have our "Matie".



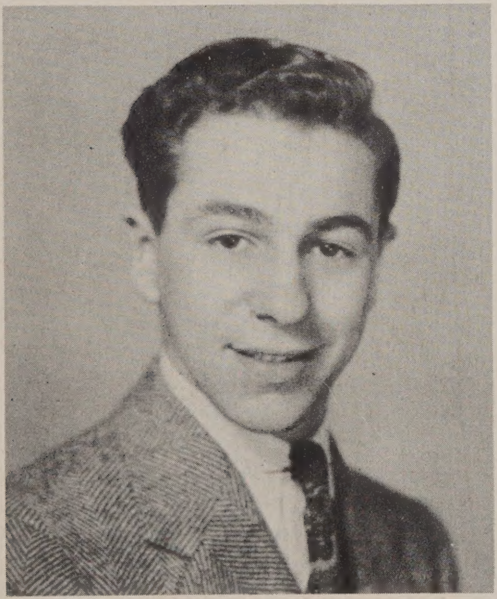
WILLIAM H. FORD

Quiet, capable, intelligent, popular--Bill will make a splendid career for himself, and enjoy doing it.



CLAYTON H. GATES

Dungarees or Top Hat and White Tie--Bud is at ease in either. Smiling, handsome, sophisticated - we love Bud's democratic, genial way.



RICHARD E. GEORGE

A fine hockey player and an outstanding boy whose splendid scholastic record presages success in the years to come.

ARMAND A. GIAMPA

Well-groomed, intelligent, poised--when opportunity knocks Armand is ready. He has all the qualities that spell success!

EILEEN F. GILMARTIN

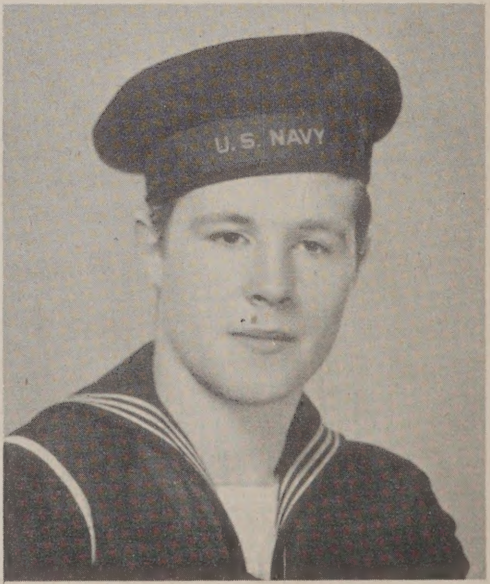
Tall, willowy, graceful, sophisticated--may she walk as serenely through life as she does through our school halls!

JOHN W. GODDARD

Keen, dark, and handsome - as fine a sailor as ever tossed a sea bag over his shoulder. Happy sailing!

HELEN T. GORMAN

Who but Helen can think of all the little things to do that bring so much pleasure to others!

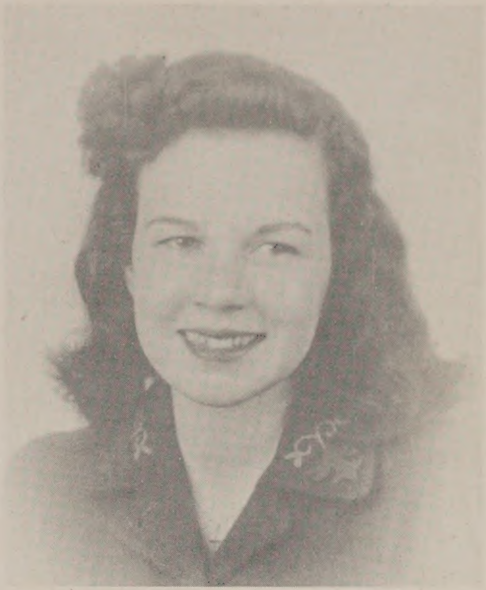


JOSEPH E. GRAHAM

Ship ahoy, Sailor Boy! There'll always be a jest and a laugh in the crew when Joe sails along!

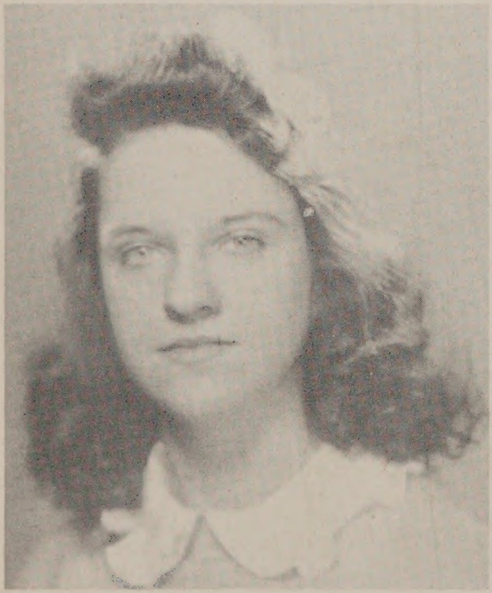
DOROTHY L. GREGORY

Radiantly happy, she trips along through life, shedding brightness and cheer and showing kindness to everyone.



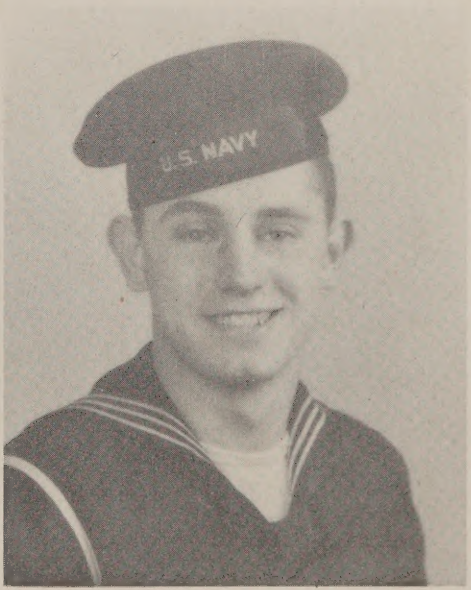
AUDREY L. GRUTTNER

Reserved, efficient, and quiet, Audie will be invaluable in the business world as a confidenfidential secretary.



MARGARET A. GUNNING

Peggy's like a ray of sunshine. She enlivens everything she touches with her gay, joyous nature.

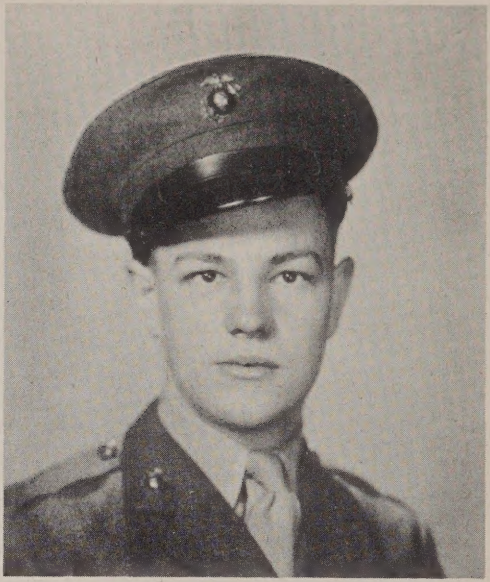


EDWARD J. HANLON

There won't be a more popular seaman sailing the Seven Seas than our Ed. Salty, jaunty, and close to our hearts!

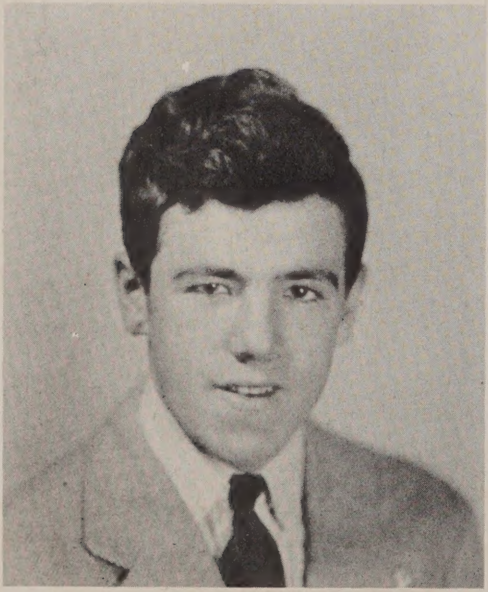
MARGARET M. HARRINGTON

Trim, tailored, but pretty and feminine, too, Margie is a picture from dawn 'til night.



WILLIAM D. HARRIS

We wager that this handsome, jaunty Marine has a heavy V-Mail. Don is as right an answer to a Senior girl's dream as we have ever seen!

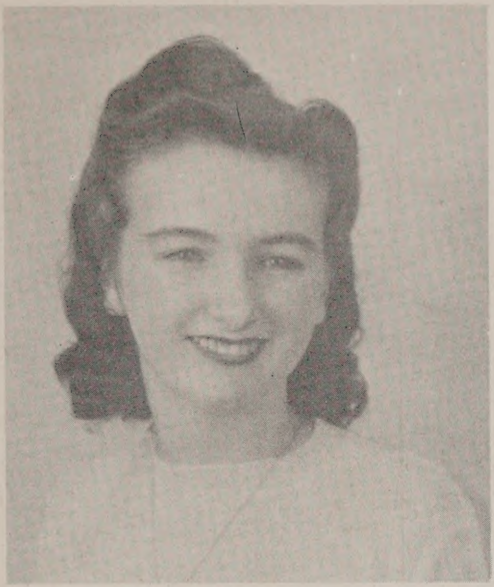


FRANCIS J. HAWKINS

Cordial smile, ready humor, amiable personality - is it any. wonder Frank is popular with all who know him?

THERESA M. HENNESSEY

Tessie has a talent for enthusiastic living. How an exciting hockey game delights her--with cheers for the Bruins, of course.



ELEANOR S. HEUSTON

The warm and unforgettable smile Tex has for everyone just makes you realize the sincerity of this wonderful girl.

MARION E. HILL

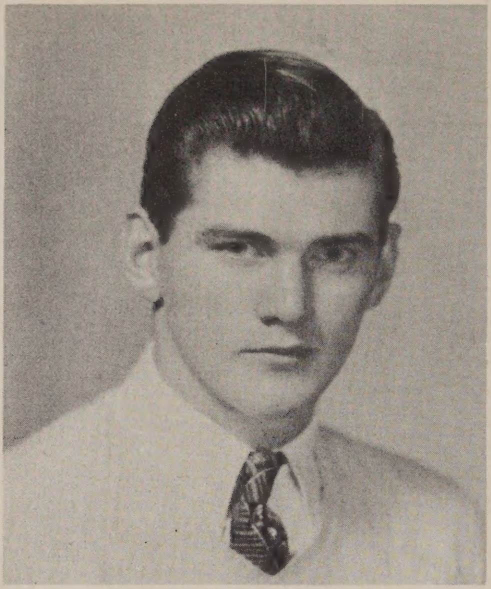
We have not known you long, Marion, but already we hold you very dear. You are so gracious and so very, very winsome.

HOWARD W. HOLLENBERG

Howard always has time to keep up with what's new in the world. This boy has a keen and alert mind.

JOSEPHINE T. HURLEY

Pretty as your heart could want --practical as your head could wish. Typing or tapping, Jo is tops!

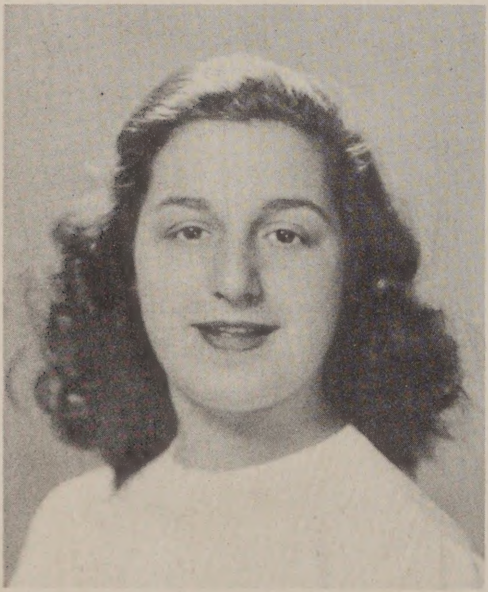


LAWRENCE T. HURLEY

Hi, there, you with the devastating smile! Here's hoping you pile up the score in life the way you do in basketball!

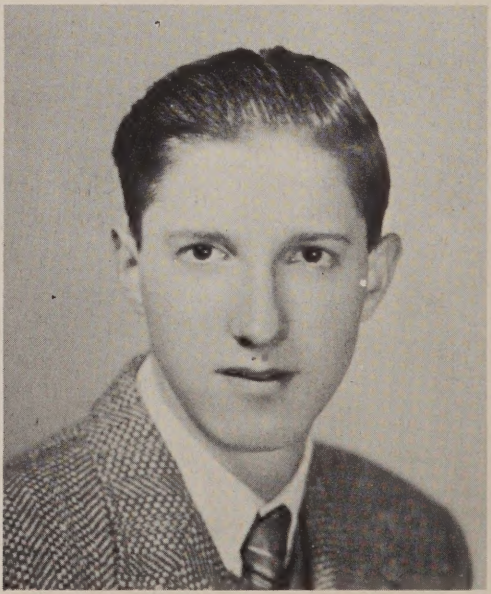
MICHAEL A. INTINGARO

A quiet friendliness and a constant cheerfulness--such qualities as these make Michael a universal favorite.



THERESA M. IULA

Tess just radiates energy - she's so active, so modern, so simply super! We love to have her near us!

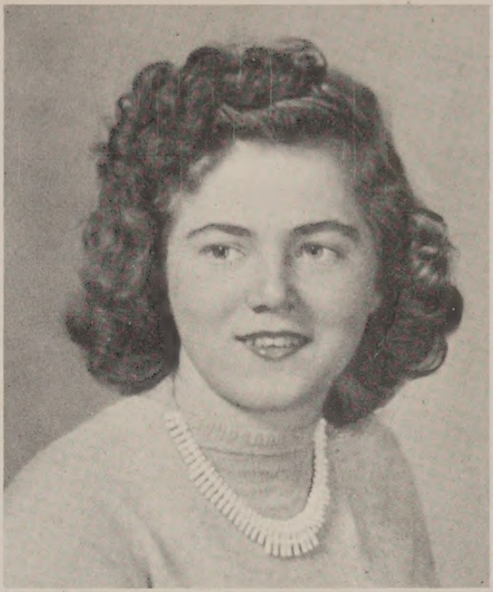


DONALD W. JOHNSON

Unpredictable is Donald! Will he be a career man or a soldier of fortune? Time alone will tell!

ROBERT W. JONES

Staunch boys like Bob with grit and courage help our Navy to sustain its glorious morale. He'll never give up the ship!



JULIA C. JULIANO

Joyous tomorrows we foresee for pretty Julie. Like a delicate fragrance her bright and sunny nature will linger in our memories.

MARGARET F. KEARNS

With her soft brown eyes and gentle ways, she is definitely the kind of girl the stag line tags.

ALICE T. KELLE

Just the right person to know is Alice! Her roguish disposition sends dull care scampering away.

ROGER T. KELLEY

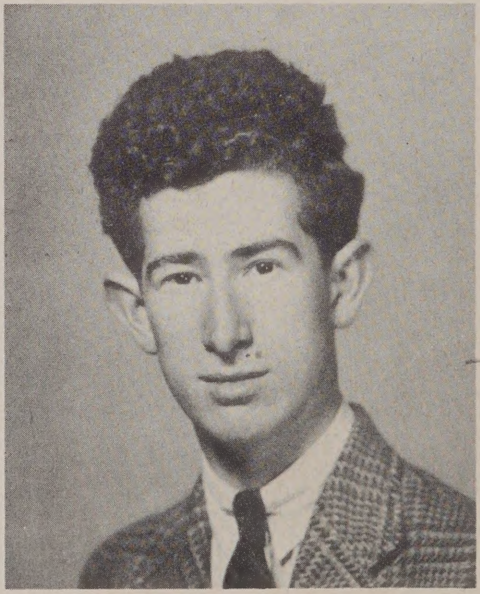
Affable, genial, Roger is liked by whoever has had an occasion to observe his fair, square outlook on life.

JOSEPHINE T. KELLY

Our class songstress! Her gay, sunny nature gives a golden tone to her beautiful voice. To the heart of '44 Chris has the key.

ELEANOR M. KING

Quiet thoughtfulness one minute--bubbling fun the next--but always appealing is Eleanor.



ANDREW C. KNUDSEN

Considerate, cooperative, and courteous--Andy is the man who will keep his head in life, no matter who else goes haywire.

JOSEPH A. KUCHINSKI

The spotlight points with pride to our class artist. Joe's talented sketches certainly continue the Senior tradition for superlative work in Year Book Art!

MARY M. LAIDLER

Mary's refreshing individuality and irresistible lightness of heart predict a happy life ahead for this sweet girl.

MARIE F. LANE

Blond, pretty, with a band-box freshness that we find most attractive, Marie is sweet as a spring breeze.

VIRGINIA R. LEARY

Dusky hair and warm brown eyes that shine with friendly lights--now you have a picture of Virginia herself!

CHARLES E. LENIUS

When it's Ship Ahoy, and this handsome, dashing sailor steps ashore in his jaunty uniform of blue, oh, that will be the day! May it be soon!

DANIEL J. LEONARD

Dan's fine record in athletics, plus the high opinion his classmates have of him, just go to show what an outstanding man he will be in the U. S. Navy.

DORIS K. LE SUEUR

Doris has a gentle seriousness and a pleasing self-restraint that give her a becoming dignity.

STUART LEVY CARVAHLO

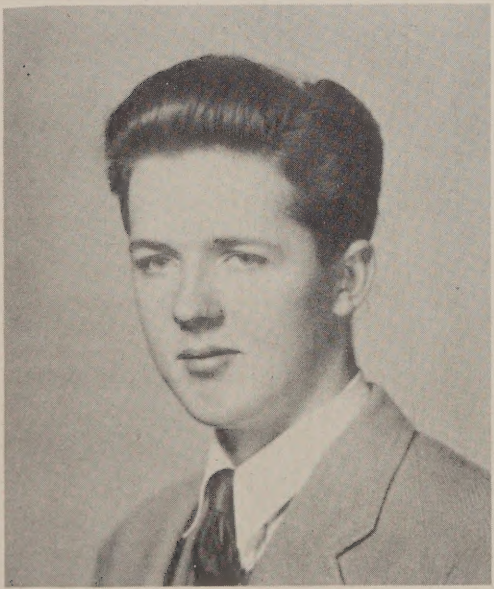
Jovial and roguish, Stuart just refuses to take life too seriously--time for that when tomorrow comes, he thinks.

WILLIAM F. LOMBARDO

Outstanding in sports at C.H.S., Bill now goes to a bigger and more serious game--the U. S. Army!

RITA A. LYNCH

Graceful, lithesome, beautiful - Rita is a picture of feminine loveliness and charm! Hollywood papers please copy.

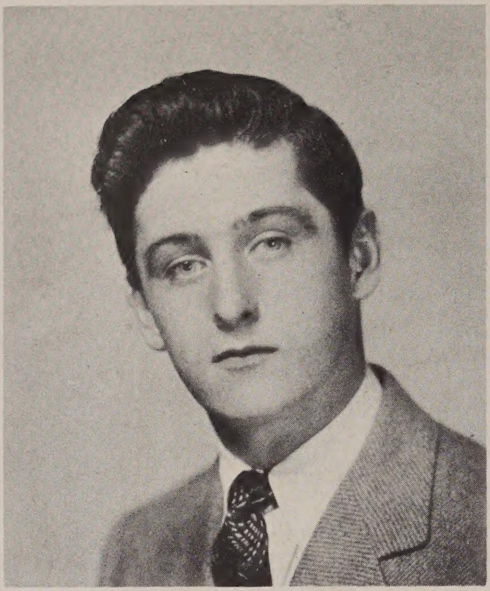


ARTHUR W. MacNEIL

The U. S. Navy will find this staunch lad seaworthy, no matter how rough the weather, nor how tough the voyage!

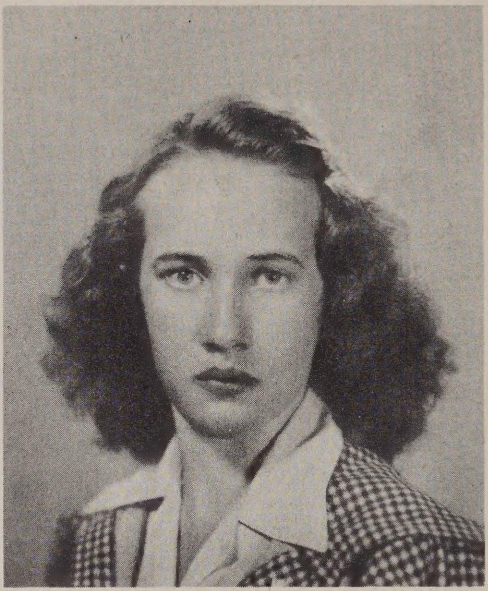
SHIRLEY M. MAGNER

A '44 favorite! Shirley gladdens us all with her warm heart and ready sympathy.



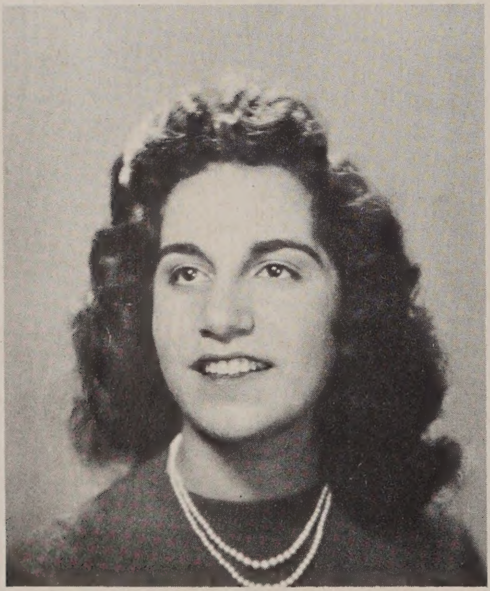
LAWRENCE F. MAHONEY

We think you're mighty fine, Larry--a good sportsman and a thorough gentleman! We could add handsome, too!



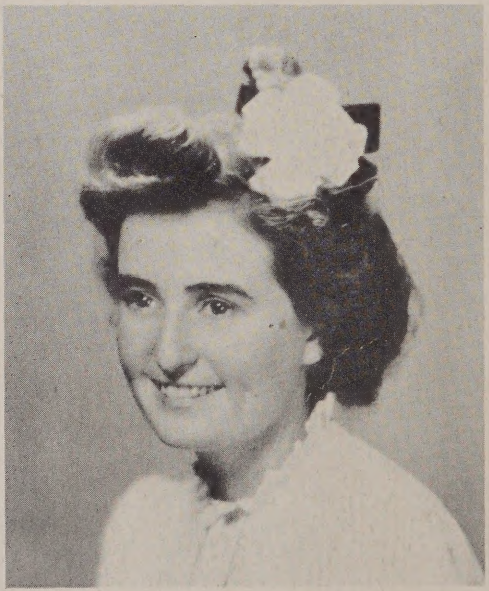
MARGARET M. MARTINE

Margie is the aviatrix of our class! We prophesy she'll be in the air before long, flying her own plane.



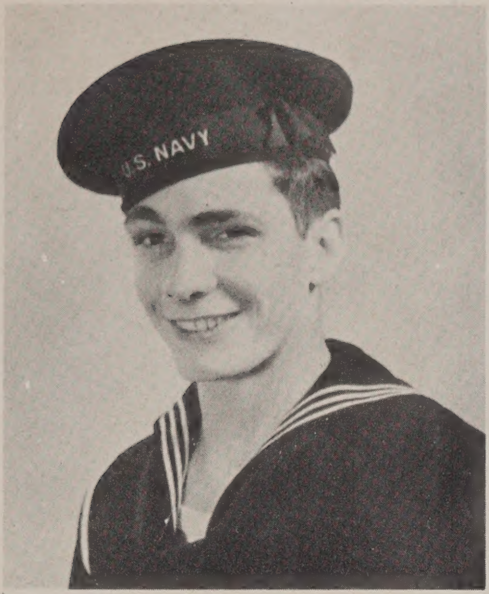
ELIZABETH MAZLOUMIAN

Dark and vivid, with merry eyes, "Liz" would like nothing better than to dance her way through life.



MILDRED F. McCARTHY

Milly's a darling! She's so winsome and shy, with such lovely bright eyes!



FRANCIS J. McCAULEY

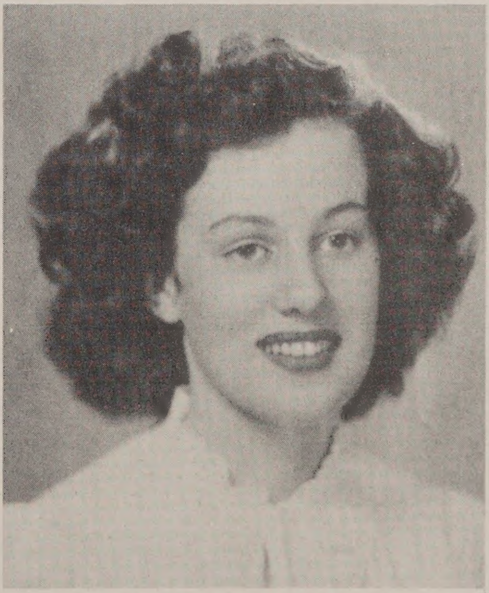
What a salty tar Frank will be! The Navy knows a good man, so Frank is at Radio School studying to be an expert technician.

CONRAD R. McCORMICH

A proud salute to Conrad! He has already had one year of combat service in the Southern Pacific with the hard-fighting, valiant Sea-Bees!

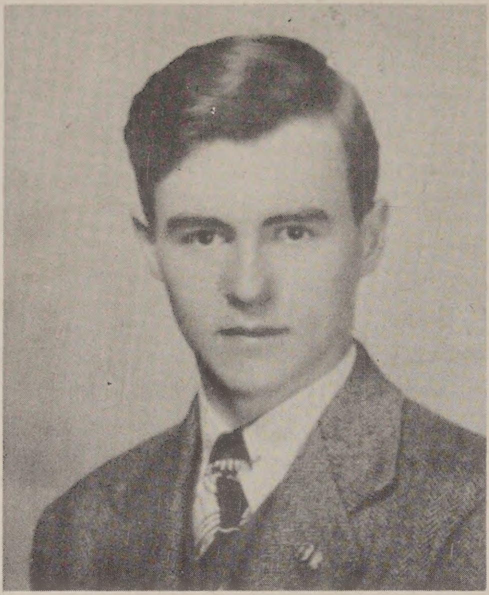
GERTRUDE P. McCORMICH

Quiet - but with depths of understanding and wisdom - Gertrude is a girl who has her own special corner in everyone's heart!



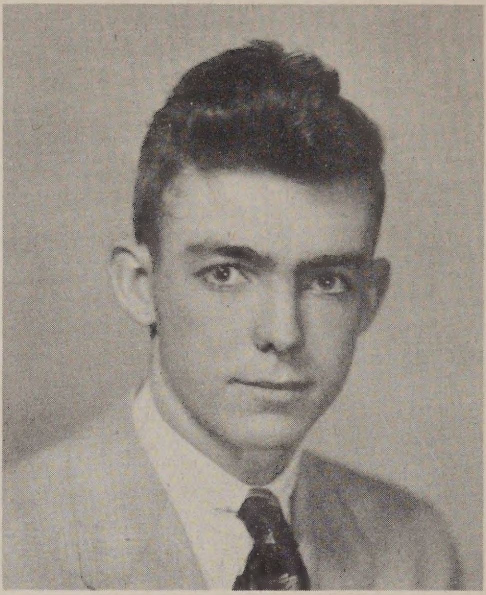
MARGARET A. McDONALD

Margaret has that smart, casual look that is so envied by us all. Let us in on the secret!



NEIL J. McELENEY

Neil has been an outstanding Senior. Brilliant in academic work, he has time to shine in athletics. We salute the Colonel of our C.H.S. Regiment!

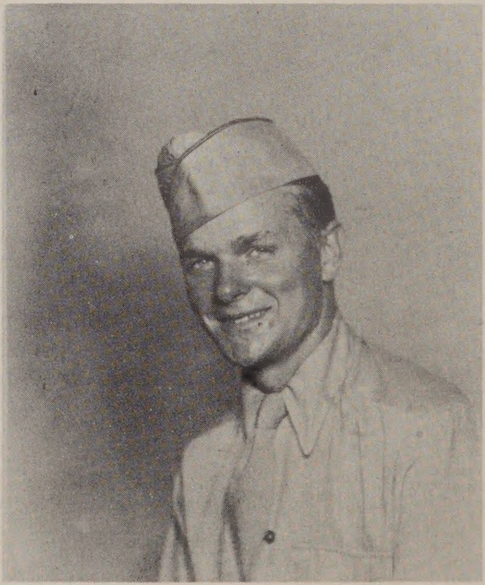


DONALD J. McHUGH

Don likes to argue and sets forth his opinions with a great deal of individuality. As a track star, he hasn't an equal in the school.

MARJORIE T. McILVAINE

Margie's sparking gaiety and sprightly humor have lightened many a dull school day for us all. We bid you fond adieu, Margie!

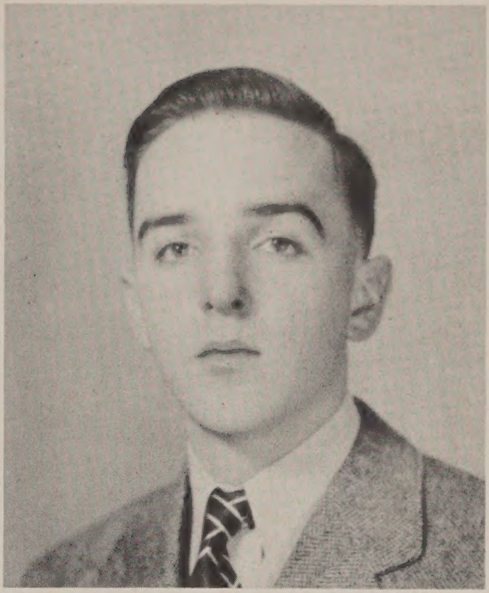


ALFRED M. McLAUGHLIN

Three cheers for Corporal Al! He is flying with the U. S. Army Ferry Command. We hope everything is "Roger" with you.

MARJORIE T. McLAUGHLIN

Whatever there is to do in the artistic line, dance posters or artistic lettering, we call for Margie.



THOMAS J. McNICHOLAS

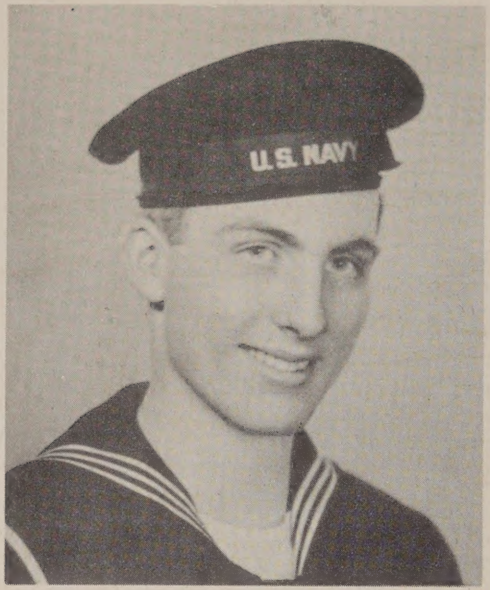
Serious, steady, sincere, Tom gives you a feeling of dependability and assurance - not only a classmate, but a friend!

ROSE J. McPHEE

Full of vitality and zest, Rose is a girl who loves sociability and gaiety around her.

GRACE A. MEEHAN

No matter how dark the cloud, Grace always sees the silver lining. What an optimist!



WILLIAM L. MERCIER

Are we proud of this handsome, distinguished-looking sailor lad! Bill, like his brother, Lt. Arnold Mercier, will come through this war an outstanding hero.

PAUL J. MESSENHEIMER

The U. S. Navy was Paul's choice when the call came to serve his country. Safe home, Sailor!

KATHLEEN B. MILLERAVAGE

Tall, stately, and really beautiful, Kathleen is lovely to look at, delightful to know.

EILEEN T. MONAHAN

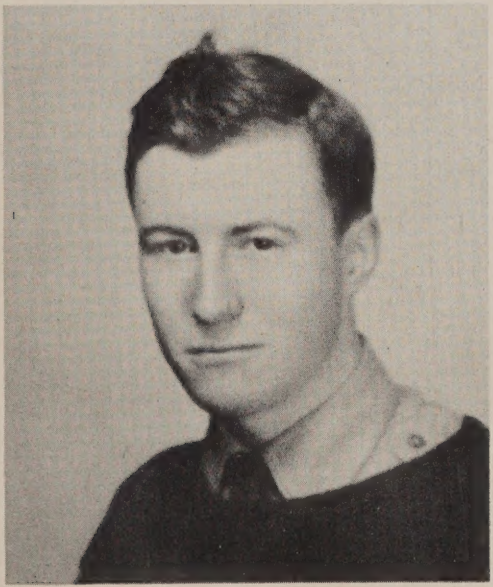
Eileen loves music, dancing, and gladness. She is at her best among friends in carefree hours.

PHYLLIS M. MORGAN

We love to see Phil caught up in the exhilirating zest of a good debate - eyes sparkling, face glowing, brimming over with ideas and striking epithets!

CLAIRE L. MORRISSEY

Peppy, enthusiastic, Lorraine trips gaily through halls and classrooms. She just refuses to worry her pretty head about anything!



FRANCIS J. MURPHY

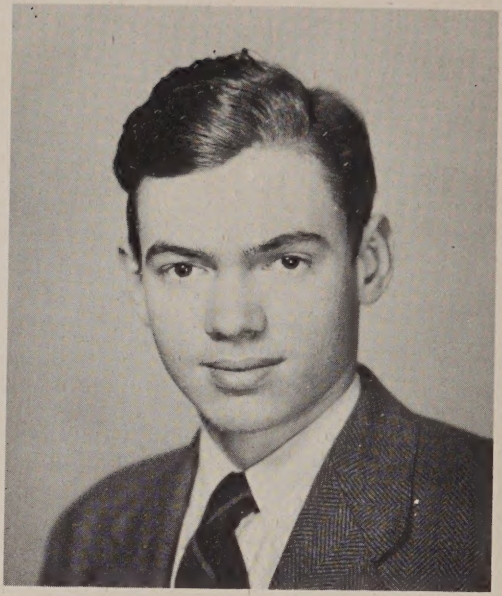
Did you ever see any of Frank's caricatures and cartoons? We predict a career for him in commercial advertising.

JOSEPH M. MURPHY

This boy has shown us all what a clever executive he will be in tomorrow's world! What will the C.H.S. Book Room be without you, Joe?

MARY E. MURPHY

What gorgeous hair our Mary has! How gleaming and smooth and fluffy she keeps her "shining glory". It is a crown, indeed.



FRANCIS E. MURRAY

First in brains; first in dependability; first in the hearts of his classmates--Frank is Honor Man of '44!

EILEEN A. O'BRIEN

Hail to our Business Manager! This talented, versatile girl is a born executive. How she can get things done!

EILEEN F. O'BRIEN

Refreshingly sweet and cordial, Eileen always has a smile in her eyes and a song in her heart!

ELIZABETH V. O'CONNELL

"Graceful" is the word that best describes Elizabeth. She is the premiere danseuse of our class. What a wonderful U.S.O. hostess she would make!

JAMES M. O'HALLORAN

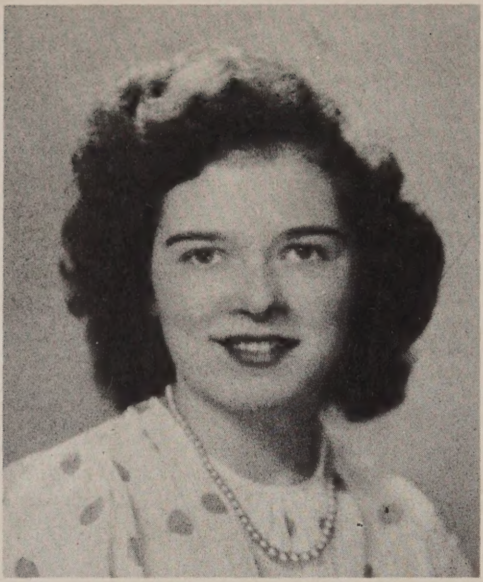
A special vote of thanks we give to Jim, the manager of our football team. You need to be good-natured for that job, and Jim is!

THOMAS F. O'LAUGHLIN

When Tom joined the Marines, the Corps got a man worthy of its splendid fighting tradition.

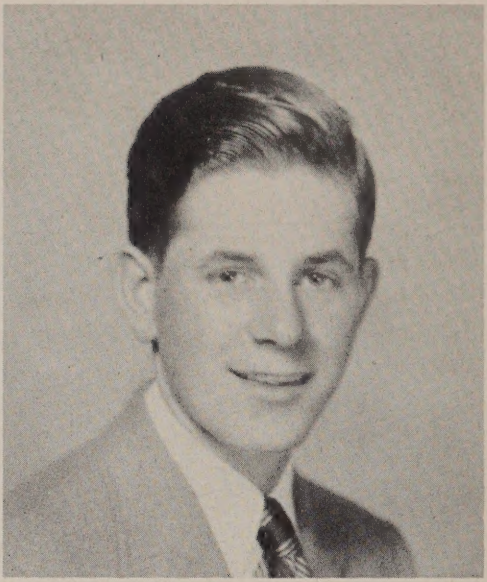
CORNELIUS A. O'LEARY

Whether it's convoying ships, patrolling the sea lanes, or fighting the enemy, this lad will be a sailor the Navy will be proud of.



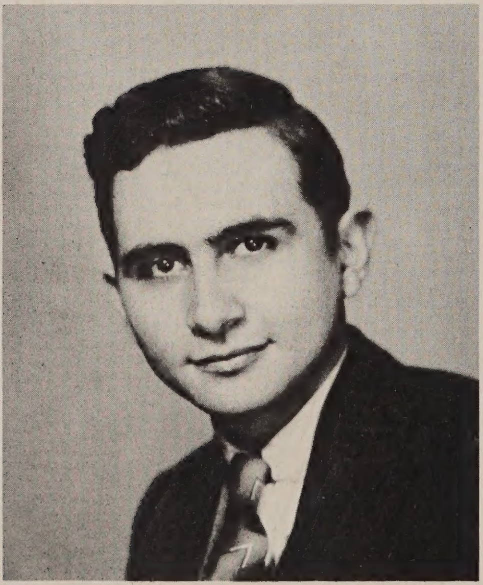
PAULINE E. OLENIK

Orchids to Pauline, voted our Pin-Up Girl for '44! Oh, wondrous fair and sweet is she!



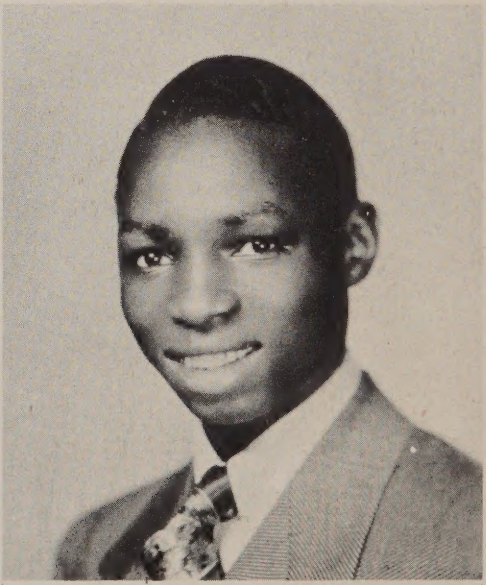
WILLIAM C. OLENIK

A good sportsman will make a good sailor. For square-shooting Bill it's full sail ahead!



JOHN J. ORECCHIO

Never letting things ruffle or annoy him, John is a man who pours oil on the waters of life, making them fit for smooth sailing.



R. DELACY PETERS

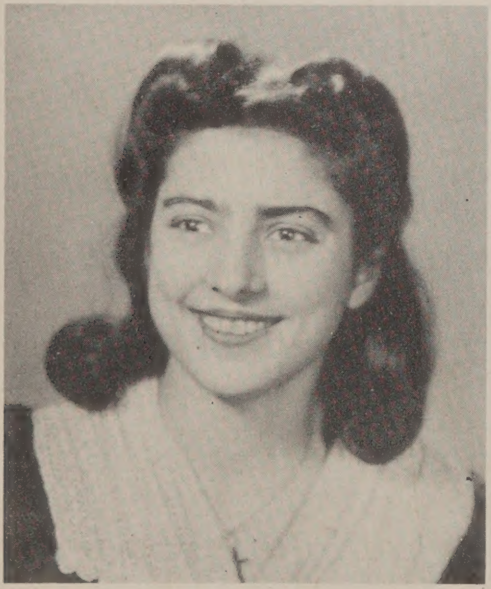
A salvo to our Drum Major! Pete is certainly a snappy band leader and steps along with grace and pep.

RAMON E. PIAZZA

Handsome, debonair, nonchalant, with a charming, if impish, grin. What havoc there'll be to feminine hearts when Ramon dons a uniform!

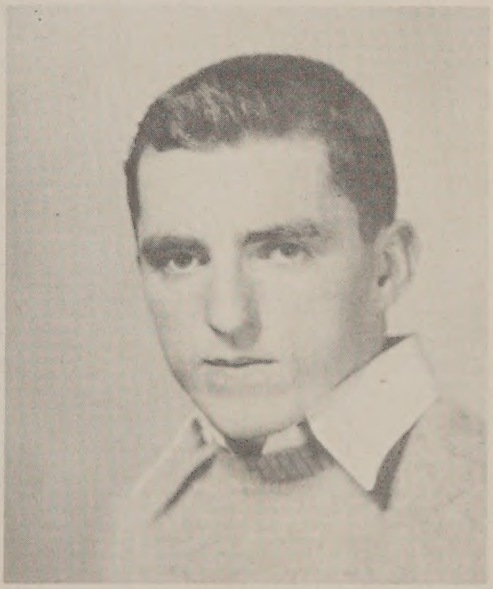
MARY PRYMAK

What a superior scholastic record! We marvel at the ease with which Mary dominates every difficulty. Honors have fallen upon her like a shower of stars!



RITA M. RAYMOND

This honor student is sprightly, vivacious, and ardently enthusiastic. Rita always gives a gay sparkle to life.



ROBERT J. REARDON

Bob is a versatile fellow who excels in all major sports! In military drill, too, he wears a captain's bars.

ELEANOR M. REGAN

Our Class Secretary wears a four-star Service Flag for four fighting brothers. Eleanor's a little thoroughbred--genuine, sincere, and loved by us all.

EDWARD J. REILLY

When the guns begin to blaze, you'll find this brave sailor doing his part to help write "finish" to the war.

PAUL F. RICH

Tall, blond, smooth, Paul's ready sense of humor will take him easily over the bumps in life.

ELIZABETH F. RICHARDS

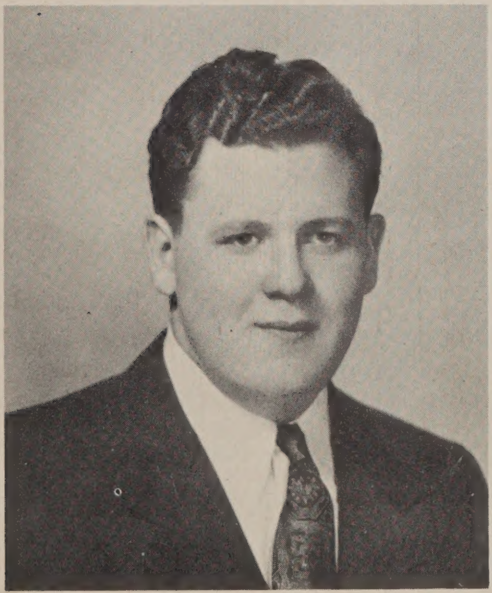
Betty is "true blue"--a friend upon whom you can always rely for sympathy and understanding.

DOROTHY L. RIDLON

Her place on Charlestown's Honor Roll marks Dorothy as a girl who will climb right to the top of the ladder of success.

MARY ROSE ROBBINS

Sweet and petite, with a merry roguish sparkle in her pretty blue eyes--that's our Mary Rose! Oh, but she's lovely!

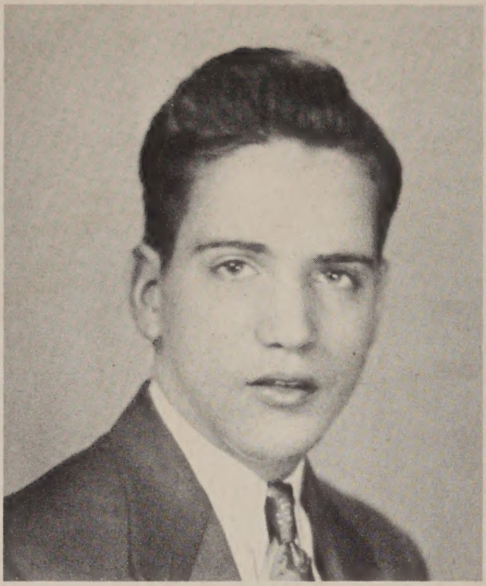


ALFRED L. ROTMAN

Success will surely smile upon Al. He's popular, wide-awake, intelligent, and ambitious.

ROSE M. RUIZ

Rose is a vivid girl, with striking hair and eyes. The day can't hold enough hours for her to crowd gaiety into it.

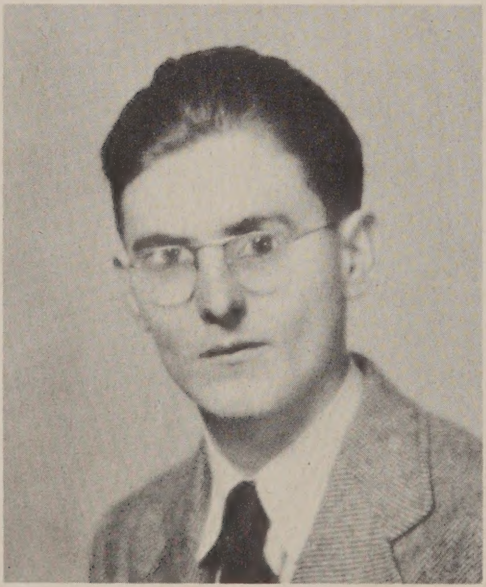


EUGENE R. SACCARDO

Gene has the ability to put people at their ease immediately. He's genuinely courteous and always interested in the other fellow.

JOHN T. SALMON

Were we surprised when our good-looking, casual John turned overnight into an alert business manager! Congratulations!



ROBERT W. SCHLEEHAUF

Quiet, courteous, and genial, Bob's true worth shines forth in the number of firm friends he has made in his high school days.

DOROTHY A. SHEA

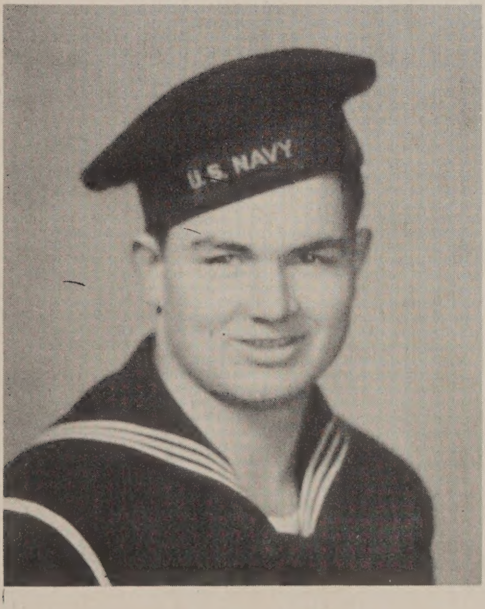
Dot's the good-looking, tall, fair type who can wear clothes like a model. We love that bright smile that she flashes upon us!

NORMA M. SHERRICK

Gallant is the word for Norma! She takes whatever life brings with courage and humor. We think she's a grand girl!

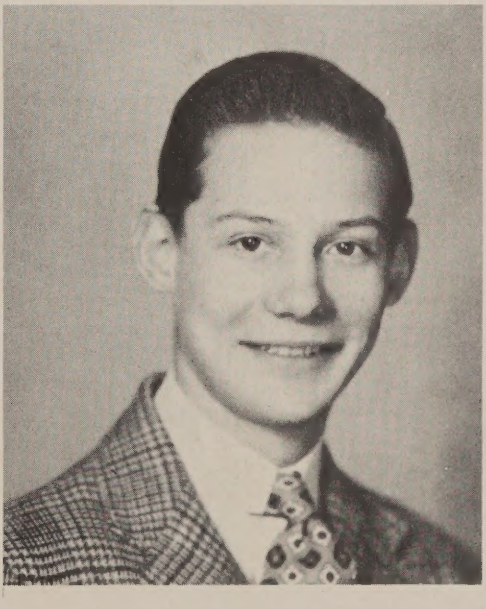
GEORGE E. SLATTERY

Whether it's C.H.S. or your battle station with the U. S. Navy, we'll know you'll be the same calm, cool, and fine fellow we like so much.



FRANK T. SMALL

Frank traded his desk for a deck so that this war may be over sooner. A handsome, dependable lad, he'll be one of the Navy's Honor Men.

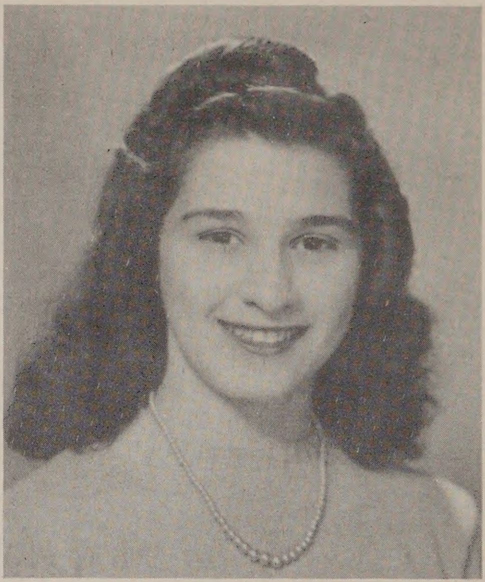


FREDERICK J. STEVENS

Many a classroom has been entertained with Fred's drolleries. He certainly has his own individual brand of humor!

LOUISE L. SWEENEY

How does Louise keep so slim and willowy? Is it because she's always darting about with an energy well-suited to wartime living?



JENNIE R. TAMBUZZA

What a charming, vivacious, piquant girl! Jennie always has an original idea to contribute - one that is novel and striking!

MARION A. TATTRIE

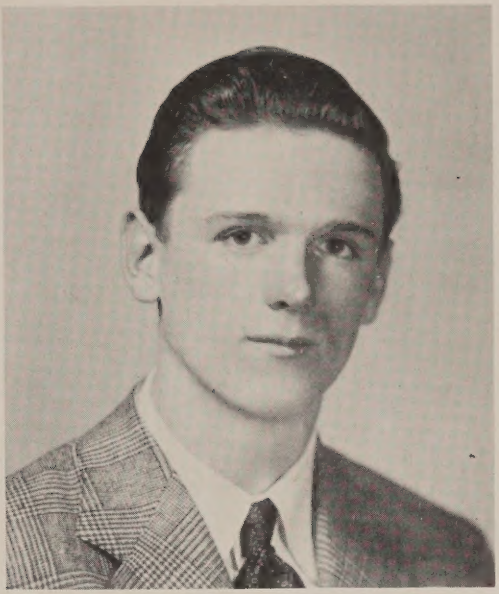
Dark-eyed Marion is so appealing - so demure! We love her soft prettiness and shy gracious ways.

JANE E. TOOMEY

Intelligent, competent, capable - whether she's running her car or her typewriter. Clever girl is our Jane!

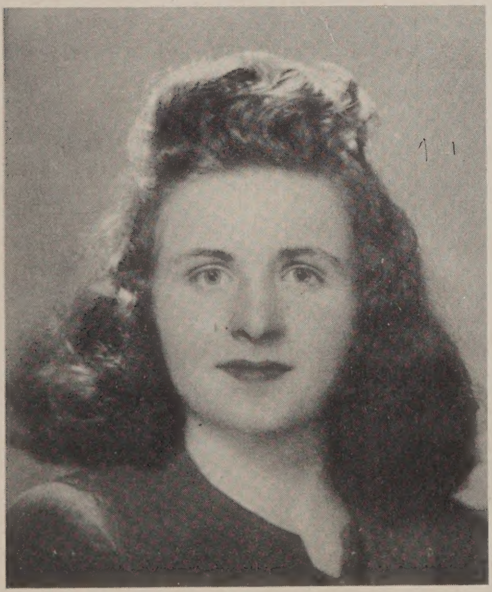
MARY C. TORPEY

Oh, so dainty and so petite, with an adorable little twinkle in her eyes! Small wonder she walks into everybody's heart!



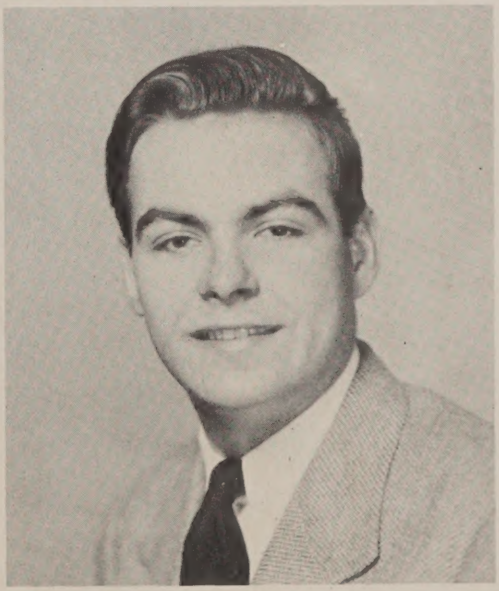
THOMAS F. WALSH

An athlete, a wit, an all-round fine fellow, Tom will be welcomed as a buddy when he joins the Service in the very near future.



JOAN T. WARD

Joan has a warmth in her heart that brings a special loveliness to her face, and makes her a favorite with us all. We hate to say good-by!

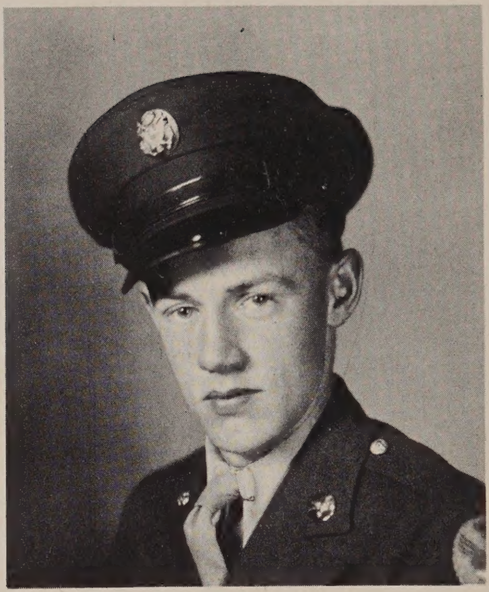


JAMES P. WHITLOCK

Jim is a grand fellow and one of the all-star schoolboy athletes of the city. We like the bright, flashing grin he has!

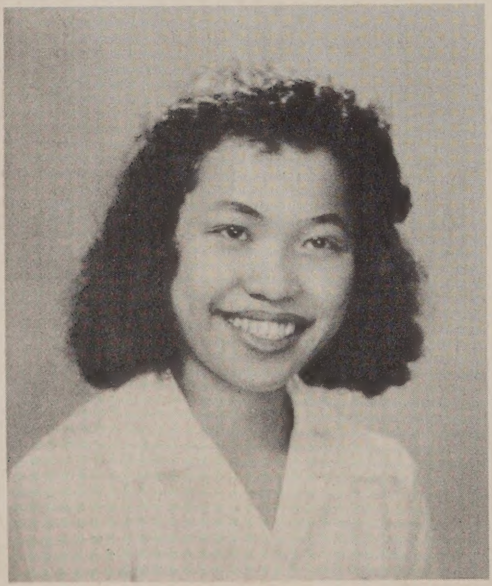
ANNE K. WILKINS

A gay, charming, talented girl! Thanks, Anne, for your hours at the piano so cheerfully given--all for the love of us!



HERBERT L. WINN

Herb is in training for Army Aviation and some day he'll wear wings over his heart. "An officer and a gentleman" that our class will be mighty proud to salute!



MEI K. WONG

Bright as a flash of dancing light, gleaming as a ray of sunshine. Mei darts like an arrow into the hearts of all!

ARLENE M. YOUNG

Tall, graceful, and dignified is Arlene. Her splendid scholastic record certainly puts her in the very first rank of our C.H.S. intelligentsia.

AUGUSTUS P. CASASSA

This gallant lad left C. H. S. to wear the sea green of the U. S. Marine Corps. Hurray for Gus!

VIRGILIO M. CATALDO

Dancing, snappy eyes and a gay tilt to his Navy hat--with lads like Virgilio about, no wonder our sailors are admired in every port.

SERGIO R. CLIVIO

At the top of the class in our affections is Sergio, a true gentleman--one who will bring honor to his Alma Mater.

RICHARD W. CREASER

A gay gallant who likes to play as well as to work. He'll get ahead in life, and have a good time, too.

NEIL F. DOHERTY

If Neil is one-half as popular in the Marine Corps as he was at C.H.S., he is a happy leather-neck. He's a grand fellow!

JAMES P. GILGUNN

His kindly humor has made Jim a popular classmate. He'll make friends wherever he goes.

PAUL J. IRVIN

Heave Ho! A breezy tar is Paul. Safe home when the job is done.

JOHN F. KELLY

Here's one boy in khaki who will get in a telling blow at the Axis, if we know our man!

PAUL L. KENNEDY

With a vocabulary par excellence, Paul is the lexicographer of our class.

CHARLES M. KHOSHABJIAN

Never did a United States Marine wear his corps motto, "Semper Fidelis", over a more loyal heart!

VINCENT J. LOMBARDO

Anchors Aweigh, Blue Jacket! When you make the home port, we'll know your job was well done.

JOSEPH E. McCABE

That Joe became a radio man and gunner in the U. S. Naval Air Force was no surprise to us - we always knew he had plenty of ability and courage.

GERALD F. McCARTHY

Never seeking applause, but always dependable and cooperative, Gerald has won our respect and friendship.

GEORGE A. McCOURT

Navy, do you want an announcer when you go on the air? Call for George! He made a big hit in our C.H.S. broadcast!

JOHN J. MOYNIHAN

A hard-fighting but gay Marine is John! What a grand fellow! What a grand Corps!

JOHN M. MURRAY

John is 1A in the Army and 1A in the hearts of all those he left at C.H.S.

JOHN J. NICHOLAS

Diplomatic, agreeable, well-groomed--even the U. S. Army couldn't hope for more. The best of luck, John!

LAWRENCE J. RICE

Ahoy, Sailor! The Navy is in luck to have you aboard, we think.

THOMAS J. RUMLEY

A sailor's hornpipe we'll do when Tom throws anchor in Charlestown again!

PAUL C. RYAN

Paul's on the march to victory--a fighting doughboy in the U. S. Army. Best of luck, Soldier!

DAVID E. SACCA

Cooperative and well-liked by all his classmates, Dave is the dependable sort upon whom we all rely.

MATTHEW P. SHEA

Keen and alert, respected and admired by all his classmates, Paul is a mighty fine fellow.

HAROLD W. SHERWOOD

Cheerio, Sailor! We're wishing you all the luck in the world while you're afloat, and safe home when it's over!

EDWARD P. SPANG

Ed has joined the proud ranks of the U. S. Army Air Force. Keep 'em flying, Ed!

RICHARD F. WILSON

May Dick chart a safe, straight course for home via Berlin or Tokio. Anchors Aweigh!

In Memoriam

MARY ANN DONOHUE
Class of 1944

Never have we forgotten the bright presence that once was amongst us and that now has left us forever. Loving, warm-hearted, rich in generosity, and infinite in kindliness, Mary was loved by all who knew her.

Even in those days when pain walked as her constant companion, her courage never faltered, her faith never wavered. Never did the smile leave her beautiful eyes. Indeed, that is how we see her now--still smiling --but now with a radiance and a brightness that is known only to those blessed ones who abide forever more with God.

COMPLIMENTS

— of —

E. H. TATE CO.

In the long run . . .

You and your friends will prize the portrait that looks like you . . . your truest self, free from stage effects and little conceits.

It is in this "long run" photography that Purdy success has been won. Portraiture by the camera that one cannot laugh at or cry over in later years.

For present pleasure and future pride protect your photographic self by having Purdy make your portraits.

Purdy

Congratulations

TO THE 1944 CLASS OF CHARLESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

FROM THE

BOYS' CLUBS OF BOSTON

We will watch your progress with interest as we have watched those who preceded you at Charlestown High.

After fifty-one years of providing activity for boys in Charlestown during their "after school hours," we want you to know that

Your Success is our Happiness . . . Good Luck
